Re: Protecting and Promoting the Open Internet, GN Docket No. 14-28, Connect America Fund, WC Docket No. 10-90, Developing a Unified Intercarrier Compensation Regime, CC Docket No. 01-92

Dear Ms. Monteith:

Pursuant to the Federal Communications Commission's ("FCC" or "Commission") Open Internet Order,¹ Carr Telephone Company ("Carr" or the "Company"), Study Area Code 310683, hereby notifies the Wireline Competition Bureau ("WCB" or "Bureau") of its intention to cease offering its DSL and Consumer Broadband-Only Loop ("CBOL") broadband Internet transmission service as separate components of its broadband Internet access service effective October 2, 2017. As such, the transmission components will not be provided as a separate regulated service and will only be provided as part of the complete broadband Internet access service that the Company offers to end user customers within its Michigan serving area through the Company.

Carr currently provides broadband Internet transmission service as a detariffed Title II offering. The only customer for the Company's broadband Internet transmission service is the Company's affiliate nonregulated ISP. Notice to the affiliate ISP was provided this date by interoffice memorandum that the Company will discontinue the offering of broadband Internet transmission service as separate components of its broadband Internet access service effective October 2, 2017.

¹ Protecting and Promoting the Open Internet, GN Docket No. 14-28, Report and Order on Remand, Declaratory Ruling and Order, 30 FCC Rcd 5601, ¶ 460 and n. 1378 (2015).

The Commission made clear in the Rate-of-Return Connect America Fund Order,² as well as the Clarification Order,³ that a rate-of-return carrier could make the retail offering described in the foregoing first paragraph, and thus the revenues associated with the broadband Internet access transmission would no longer be subject to the federal universal service assessment pursuant to FCC Form 499-A.

This notice is effective October 2, 2017 unless withdrawn or extended prior to that time.

Please contact the undersigned if you have any questions,

Sincerely,
